

Martin Methodist College
Assistant/Associate Professor, Education

Martin Methodist College invites applications for a fulltime, tenure-track position in Education, beginning fall 2021. Ph.D. or Ed.D. required in Secondary Education, STEM Education, or related field. Rank will be determined based upon educational background, scholarly productivity, and academic and administrative experience. Applicants with an interest in assessment and accreditation, classroom policies and procedures, educational law, diverse populations and exceptionalities are preferred. The ideal candidate will have excellent teaching skills; good interpersonal and teambuilding skills; effective written and oral communication skills; and management and organizational skills.

Qualified candidates should provide the following information to be considered: a letter of application, curriculum vitae, a list of three references, and academic transcripts from all institutions attended (unofficial transcripts may be used for the application process, but official transcripts will be required prior to any offer of employment). Screening of applications begins March 1, 2021.

- Applications and nominations should be sent to the office of the Provost:

Dr. Judy Cheatham
Martin Methodist College
433 West Madison Street
Pulaski, TN 38478

For electronic submissions:

Email: ebass@martinmethodist.edu

Submit application materials electronically or via U.S. Mail. No phone calls, please.

Founded in 1870, Martin Methodist College is a four-year liberal arts college related to the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church. On an historic campus located in Pulaski, Tenn., in the beautiful hills of southern Middle Tennessee, the college is convenient to both Nashville (70 miles to the north) and Huntsville, Ala. (40 miles to the south).

<http://www.martinmethodist.edu/>. MMC offers teacher licensure in elementary education; secondary English, social studies, biology, business, and mathematics; and physical education.